Start – Palivos Estate Winery

Stop 1 – Nemea Archaeological Site

Stop 2 – Ancient Nemea Stadium

Cycling – Ancient Nemea & Modern Nemea

Our ride begins at the Palivou Estate Winery, nestled among the vineyards of Nemea. The first stop brings us to the Archaeological Site of Nemea, where we pause to explore the impressive Temple of Zeus. A short ride from there leads us to the Ancient Stadium, once home to the Nemean Games. We then continue cycling through a mix of ancient and modern landscapes, passing through the heart of both ancient Nemea and the present-day town, blending mythology with the rhythms of everyday village life.

*Cycling 5 – Aidonia Village
Stop 3 – Mycenaean Cemetery, Aidonia
Cycling – Leondio Village
End of Cycling – Palivos Estate Winery*

From Nemea, we cycle south toward the village of Aidonia, riding through quiet rural roads surrounded by olive groves and vines. In Aidonia, we stop to visit the Mycenaean Cemetery, one of the most significant prehistoric burial sites in the region. After the visit, the route continues with a gradual climb toward Leontio, a traditional mountain village offering panoramic views of the Nemean countryside. From there, we begin our descent back toward the Palivou Estate Winery, where the cycling loop comes to a close.

Palivos Wine Train Experience

The Palivou Wine Train Experience offers a unique and luxurious wine tasting in the heart of Ancient Nemea.

Set inside a restored vintage train carriage overlooking the estate's vineyards, this experience combines panoramic views with an intimate atmosphere.

After the cycling tour, guests enjoy a curated tasting of Palivos award-winning wines, carefully selected for your group.

The wine tasting is accompanied by a beautifully arranged platter featuring a variety of cheeses, cold cuts, crackers, dried fruits, and traditional Greek sweets the perfect way to relax and enjoy the rich flavors of Nemea's terroir.

Please note: We'll confirm this wine tasting experience after checking availability with Palivou Estate.
